

1962 TOMAHAWK

THE FUNCTION

OF A UNIVERSITY

The background of the entire page is a dark, textured charcoal grey. Overlaid on this are several thin, white, rectangular lines. A vertical line runs down the right side of the page. A horizontal line runs across the middle of the page. These two lines intersect. Below the horizontal line, there are two more horizontal lines, creating a narrow band at the bottom. To the left of the vertical line, there are two vertical lines, creating a narrow band on the left side. The text "developing the art of living" is positioned in the lower right quadrant, within the dark area, in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font.

We believe . . .

this University has a destiny,
the destiny of this University is unlimited,
this University must have a competent faculty, adequately compensated, the faculty must develop a broad program of liberal education, this program must teach the truth,
this University must be a center of learning,
the students must have a serious purpose,
this University must have adequate physical facilities,
this University is entitled to community support, the graduates of this University have a duty to themselves, this city, the state and nation, to work for the betterment of humanity.
These things, we do believe.

Thomas O'Grady

Editor of the 1962 Tomahawk was Karen Pope. Mary Jane Cooper was faculty editor; Malanie Jeuh, Greek editor; Carol Vetter, senior editor; Roger Brown, sports editor and Lee Burrell and Toni Turnquist, art editors. Paul V. Peterson was year-book adviser.

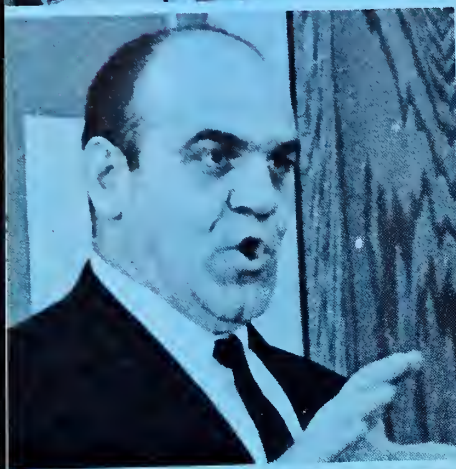

Greek Week activities were highlighted by the Greek Week Banquet, March 10th, in the Student Center. Chi Omega sorority and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity had the highest scholarship averages. Dudley Kersey, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Suzi Sipherd, Chi Omega, were named "otnstanding pledges."

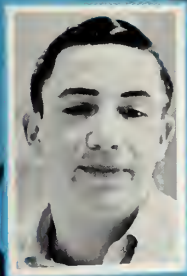

At the annual Military Ball, March 3, Joyce Stolley was named honorary Colonel. Diane Barker and Gwen Sandvall were named honorary majors.

The annnal musical production of the University, "The Boy-friend," was held March 23, 24 and 25th. Susan Ewing, Judy Vincentini, Dudley Kersey, Judy Boner, Jim Pelowski and Bob Riggs played the leading roles. The musical was directed by Dr. Edwin Clark. Choreography by Mrs. Linda Dooley and stage settings by Jane Andersen.

Staff

The 1962 TOMAHAWK began at 12:01 a.m. on March 1. The yearbook staff has tried to record the many events that happened between March 1, 1961 and March 1, 1962. We hope we have given a fair representation of the activities on the OU campus.

Greek Week

Scholarship, outstanding pledge and intramural athletic awards were presented at the annual Greek Week banquet March 10. Dr. Ralph Wardle spoke to the Greeks about "Progress" pertaining to Greek University life. Dud Kersey and Suzie Sipherd were selected as the "outstanding pledges." Greeks dusted, cleaned and painted Camp Brewster for their project.

Three pledges with 4.0 grades were Sandra Deckert, Suzie Sipherd, and Jan Myers. Suzie was also named "outstanding pledge."

Judy Lane, Judy Flint, Diane Schultz, Sarah Brader, Suzie Sipherd and Sandra Deckert were honored for their top grades. Dud Kersey was named "outstanding fraternity pledge" and was given a scholarship by IFC.

Jim Foster leaps high in the broad jump.

Indoor Track

Roger Sayers leads in the low hurdles.

Dave Hagglund does his best in the high jump.

Coach Lloyd Cardwell's Indian trackmen finished the indoor season February 23 with the CIC championships at Omaha University. Roger Sayers was the top indoor pointmaker with 50 scores in a dual and two triangulars. Others include Jim Foster 18, Bruce Hunter 15, Al Roberts 14, and Tom Ash 9.

Flappers meet their beaus down at the beach; Marge Kunkel gives two girls a lesson in behavior, while Sue Ewing explains about "the boyfriend."

"The Boyfriend"

Capturing the flavor of the roaring twenties singers and dancers rocked the University's stage with the production of "The Boyfriend." Under the direction of Dr. Edwin Clark, singers and dancers put forth a lot of that old razzama-taz and boo-boopie-doo. Short skirts flew as dancers revived the charleston and girls squealed.

Judy Boner and Jim Pelowski rehearse the charleston under the direction of Mrs. Linda Dooley, choreographer. On stage as Bobby and Maisie their number proved a show stopper.

APRIL

At the Honors Convocation, April 28, Jack Vogt was named winner of the Philip Sher essay contest. Students who had a 3.5 average for one or more semesters were named to the Deans List. Also honored at the convocation were scholarship holders.

At the journalism banquet, April 19, Paul "X" Derry was voted the "student who did the most for student publications during the year," by his fellow journalists. Chuck Palmer received a cash award from the Omaha Press Club. Julie Zelenka was awarded a plaque for being the outstanding journalism alum of the year.

Four hundred students were cited at the Honors Convocation held April 28, 1961. The citations were based upon scholastic achievement during the 1960 semesters and summer sessions. Six students received awards for special achievement. Sally J. Anderson received first place and Dorothy L. Hicks second in the George B. Lake Memorial Prize in American History. Betty Jafek received the Chi Omega Alumna Award, and Frieda Cohen was awarded the Chi Omega Social Science Award. Anita Lee received the Omaha Panhellenic Award. The winner of the Philip Sher Essay Contest, John P. Vogt, was announced at the Convocation.

MAY

Highlighting Ma-ie Day festivities, May 12th, was the crowning of Carol Robinson as the 1961 Ma-ie Day Princess. Carol was elected in an all school election. Her attendants were Joyce Stolley, Karen Jensen, and Donna Pullen. Winner of the float division was "Fantasy in Red" by Pi Kappa Alpha.

The All-School Sing, May 19th, was held in the Student Center Ballroom. Alpha Xi Delta sorority won first place in the women's song division. In the men's division Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity captured first place. Eighteen women were tapped for membership in Waokiya. Five male students and one male faculty member were tapped for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Coach Virgil Yelkin's baseball team soared to a 19-7 season record. The team was paced by Jack Vaccaro's N.A.I.A. leading .491 batting average and the 9-1 pitching of Barry Miller.

Ma-ie

Highlighting the 1961 Ma-ie Day festivities was the announcement of Carol Robinson as Princess Attira XXVII.

Carol, representing Chi Omega, was elected in an all-school election.

Attendants to Princess Carol were Joyce Stolley, Alpha Xi Delta; Karen Jensen, Zeta Tau Alpha; Donna Pullen, Sigma Kappa and Mary Schoep, ISA.

Top float honors went to Pi Kappa Alpha while "little boy blue" won first place in the car division.

Day - 61

Pi Kappa Alpha won first place in the float competition with "Fantasy in Red." Second place honors went to Lambda Chi Alpha's "Real George." Sigma Kappa and Tau Kappa Epsilon tied for third place. Other activities during the day included a sun rise dance, a breakfast, a pizza lunch, and plenty of games.

Princess Carol and her attendants watch Ma-ie Day festivities. Siebler scurries for a lollipop, girls defy calories, while other shake a leg.

Doane Relay winners (Left to right from bottom) Roger Sayers, Dennis Dunning, Lloyd Cardwell Jr., and Bruce Hunter. Sayers set a record in the 100 Yard dash and all four set a record in the 880 Yard relay. They also won a trophy in the mile relay.

Lack of depth hurt the team both in indoor and outdoor track. The squad broke 26 records and tied five, along with taking 70 first places and 36 second places during the season. The number of first and second places won should be enough to win most meets, but the failure to win more third, fourth and fifth places is what prevented the squad from winning more meets. Coach Cardwell is hoping that the depth he needs so badly will come this year.

Spring Sports

The Spring sports, led by baseball and golf, again had successful campaigns. Virgil Yelkin's baseball team ended the season with a 19-7 record and earned its third straight trip to the National NAIA championships. They won titles in both the CIC and the Kansas-Missouri-Nebraska league also for the third time.

Coach Bob Anthes' golfers had the next best mark winning 9 of 13 contests. Anthes' teams have won 37 while losing seven and tying two the past three years.

Lloyd Cardwells track squad, hurt by the lack of depth ended the season with a 1-2 mark. The fraternities also participated in track activities which was highlighted by a one-mile team race.

JUNE

"In gratitude to my University, I pledge myself to fulfill her high hopes in me to the best of my ability; to work for, support and encourage her progress in higher education; to maintain a close interest in her welfare, and to assist her every endeavor. These things I pledge in the belief that my University shall always move forward."

An integral part of the University's Adult Education program have been the classes at Offutt Air Force Base, a year-around program shown here

Students enrolled in regular classes this semester have been urged to take their final exams.

Summer school is intensified schooling. The summer school student spends an hour and 15 minutes in class six days a week for five weeks. But summer school is not all studying. There are conferences, clinics, foreign visitors, plays and workshops.

JULY

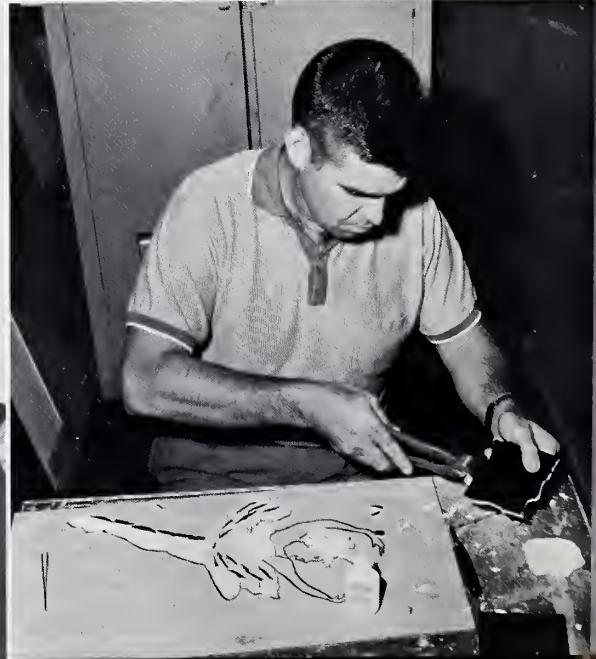

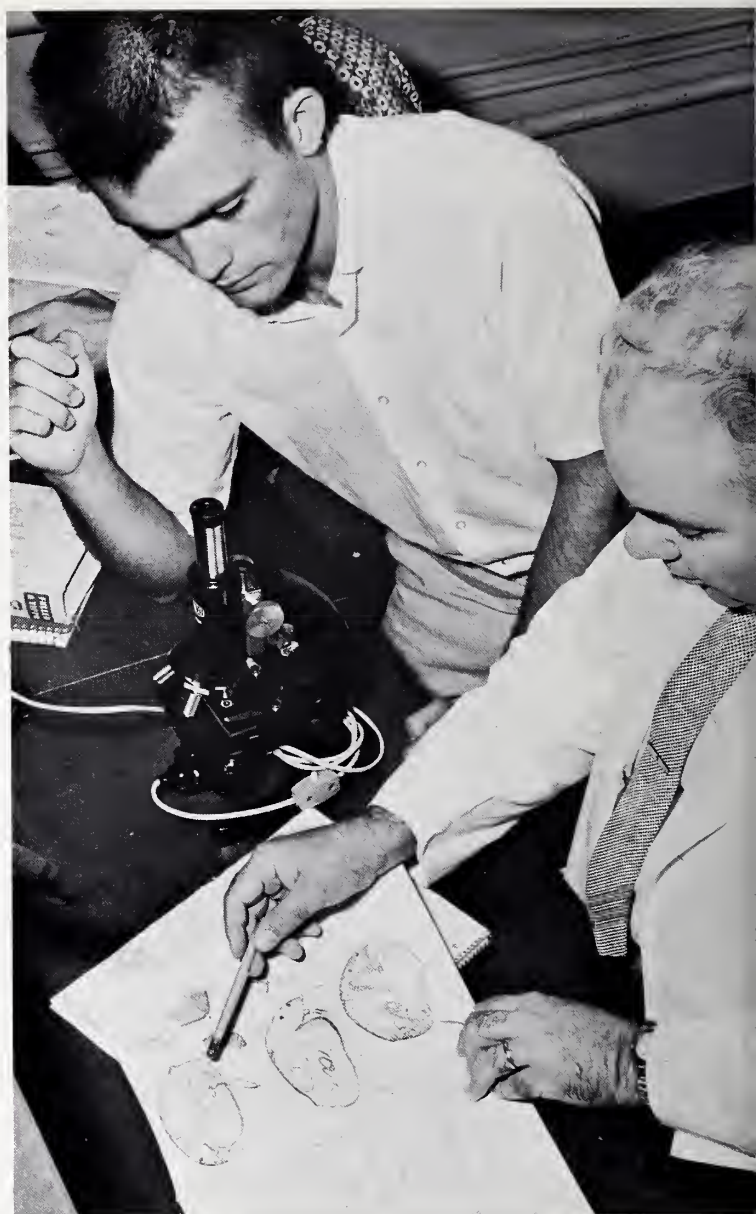

The Big C's -

Classes, conferences, clinics, concerts—were typical of the summer sessions at the University. The pictures on these pages demonstrate but a few of the variety of activities that constituted the summer sessions under Director Donald Z. Woods. Registration figures were up again.

Summer Theatre

Under the direction of Dr. Edwin Clark summer school students put on three plays. Playing the leading roles in "Come Back Little Sheba" were Robert Hansen, Cherie Shaver, Ned Nassaman and Carol Kohl. "Sheba" was given July 6-8. The July 18-22 production of "The Doll's House" saw Neil Shaver, Susan Peters, Tom Hicks and Larry Jorgensen in the spotlight. A combination of "The Sandbox" and "Krapp's Last Tape" was given August 1-5. Leads in "The Sandbox" went to Ken Leeper, Neola Fontane and Jim Cox. Rudyard Norton played the lead in "Krapp's Last Tape."

Director of "Doll's House" was Assistant Dean Curt Siemers.

Bootstrappers

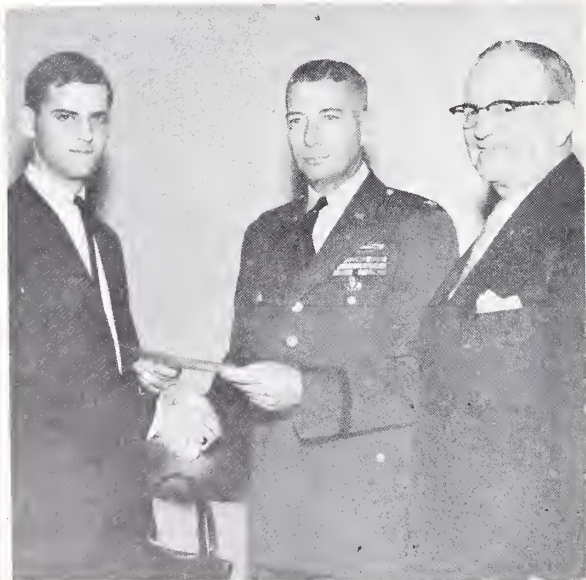

Bootstrappers take time out for coffee at the mid-year graduation reception.

Pen & Sword Society

A society organized for the Bootstrappers. Its purpose is threefold first to perpetuate an annual scholarship in the name of the society. Second to provide an opportunity for social activities for the members, and three to assist incoming Bootstrappers.

Major Elmer Spence of the society presents a 50 star flag to OU's USAFROTC unit.

D. Kent McCallum receives the annual Pen and Sword scholarship from Col. Richard Seitz. The scholarship is awarded annually to a deserving under graduate by the Alumni board.

The society has its distaff side. Delores Browning, Ellen Bitting and Ava Peen are shown concentrating on the more puzzling aspects of college life.

Spring officers of the Pen and Sword Society were H. Miller, special activities; L. O. Amundson, public relations; B. E. Gill, secretary; N. F. J. Allen, president; M. Jeffords, treasurer; D. Buono, social secretary. Fall officers were J. Warren, president; L. Bjostad, secretary; Elmer Spence, treasurer; R. Via, public relations; Frank Mellina, social secretary; Larry Albers, special activities.

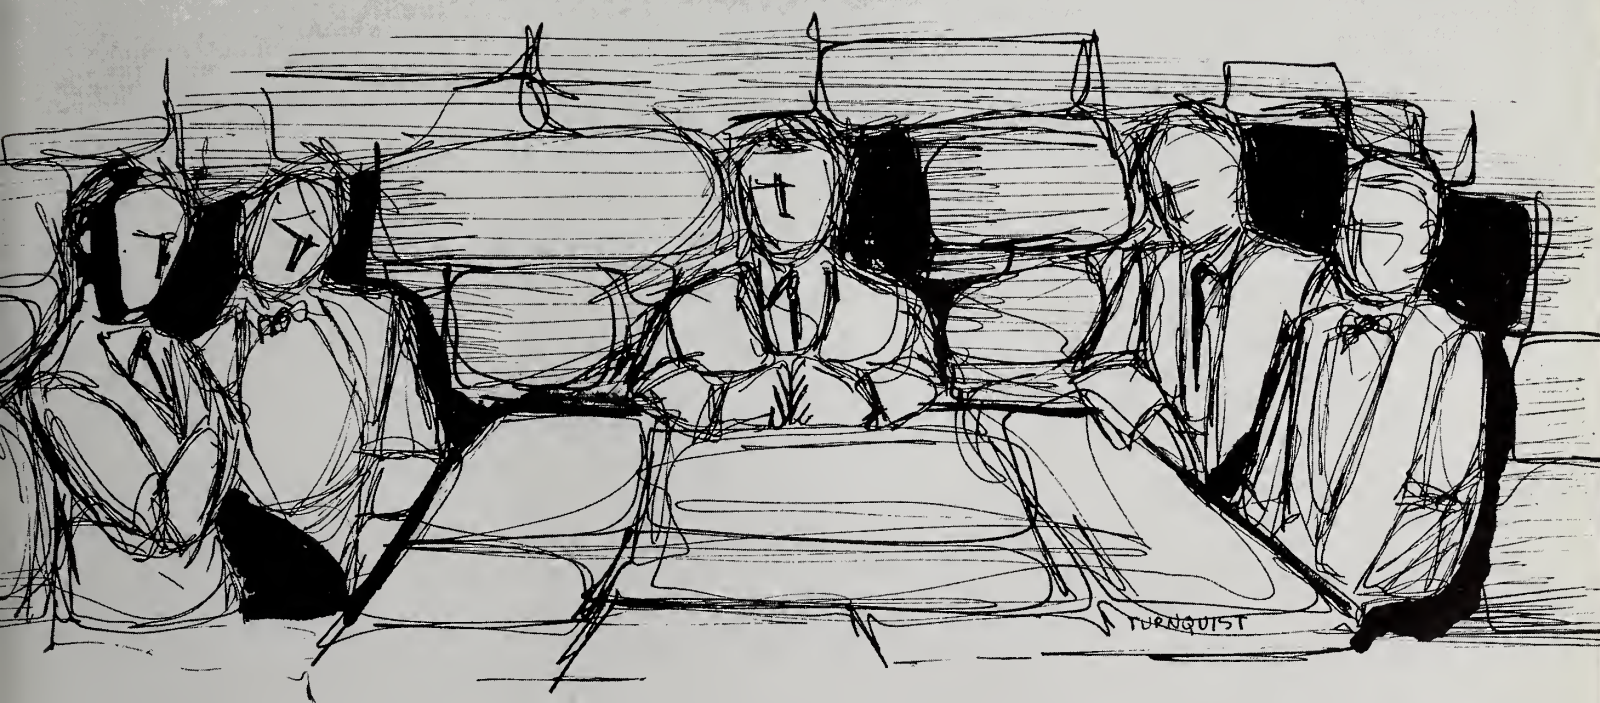

The picture below represents but a small share of the current membership. The society had a registered membership of 323 for the 61-62 academic year. The membership, however, is of life time duration, and there are a total 732 members.

AUGUST

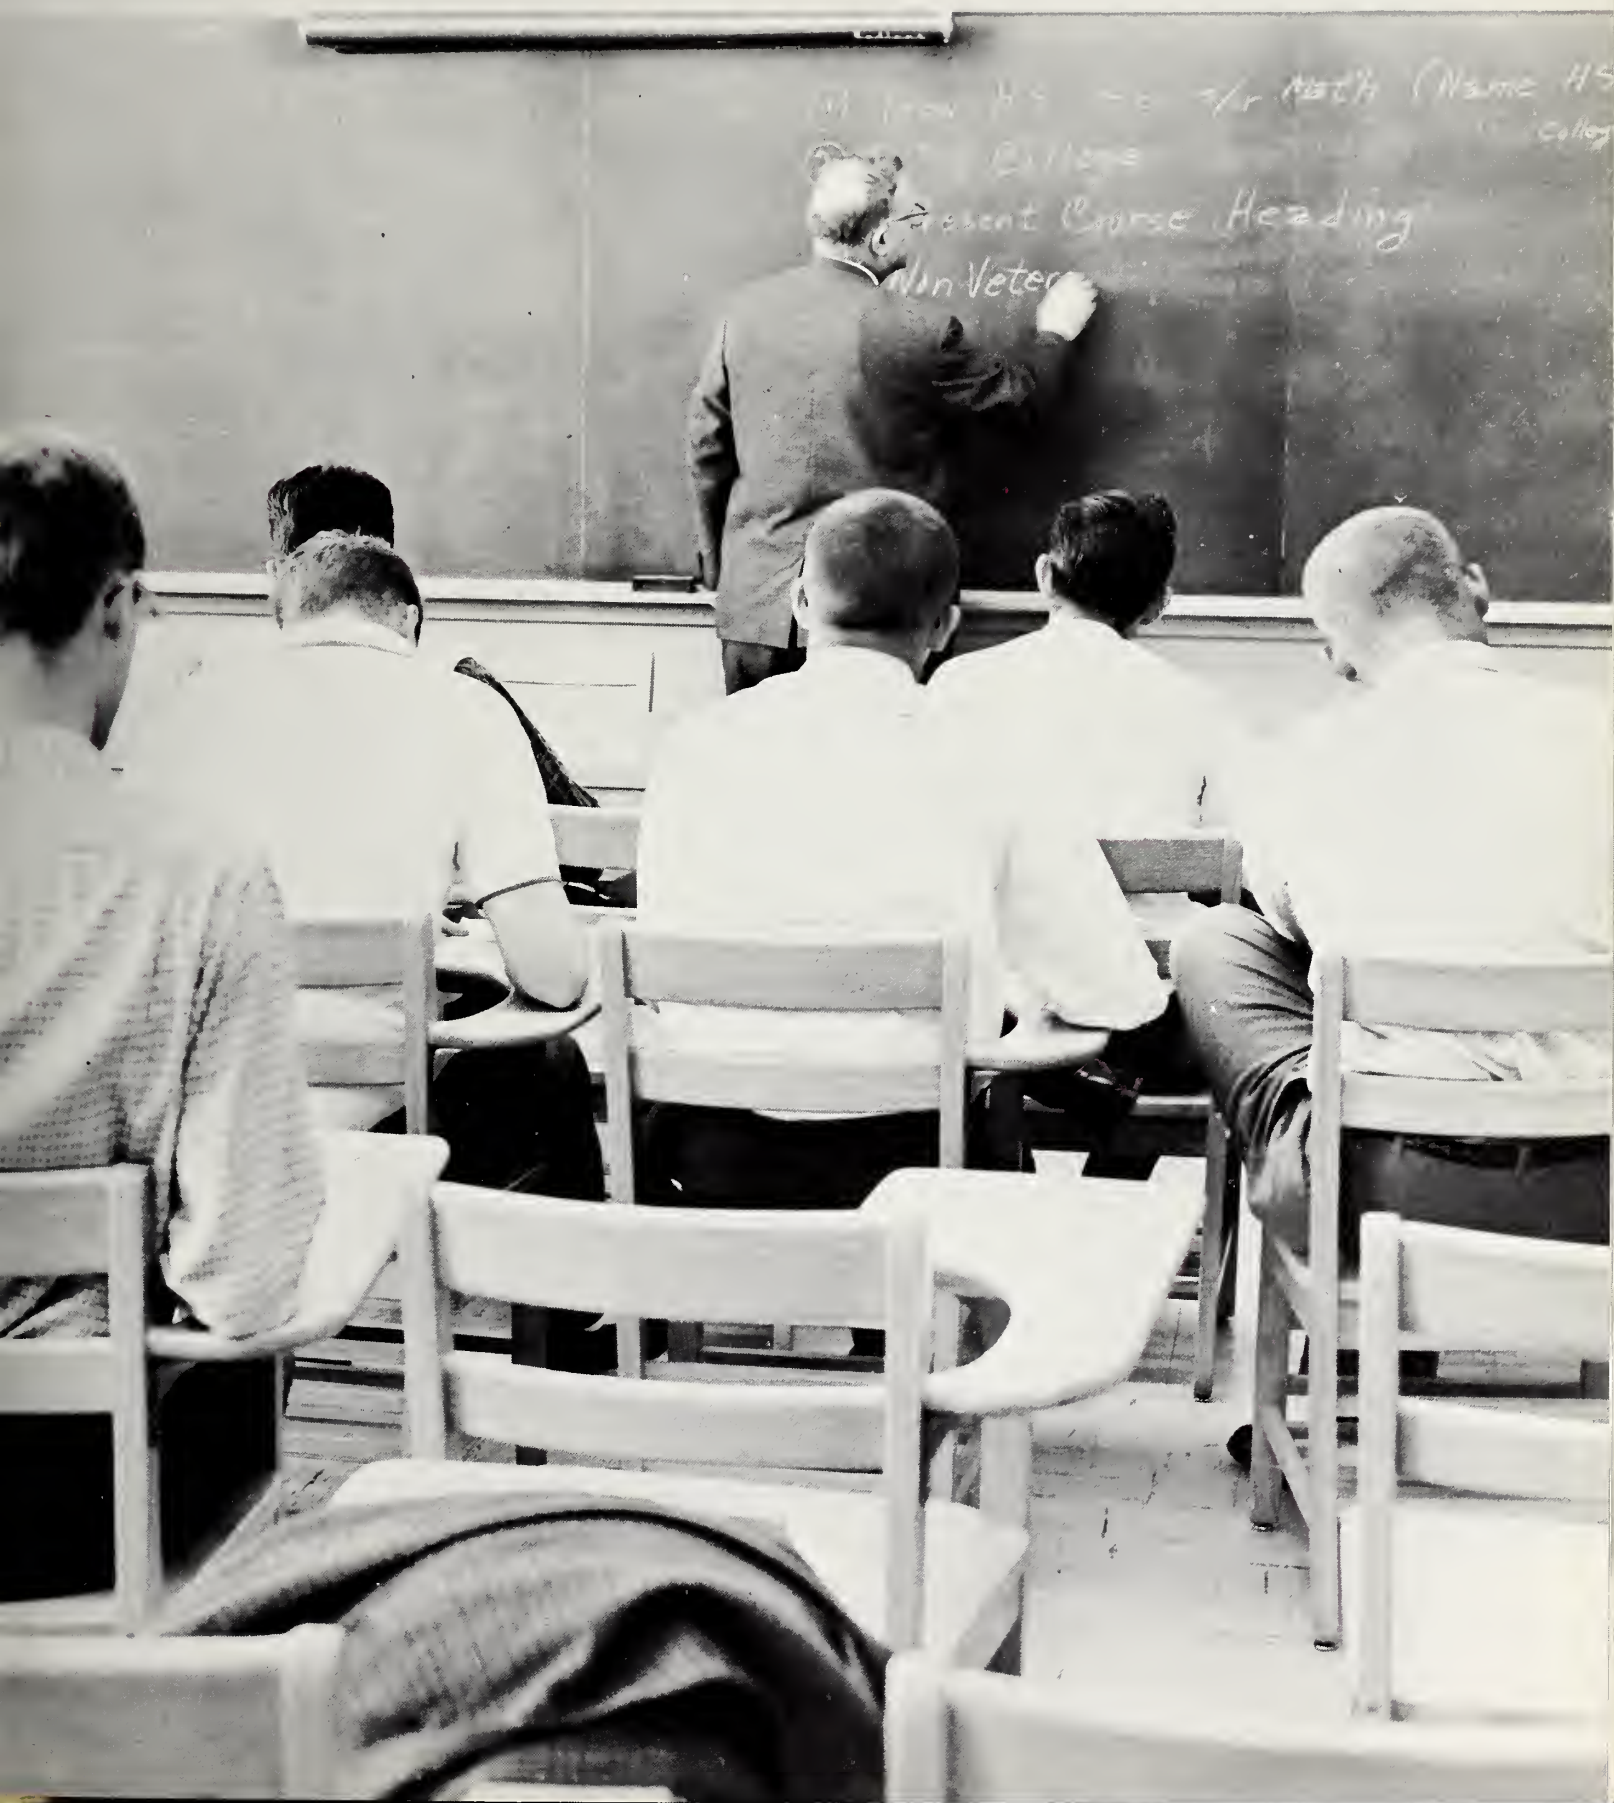

Many new persons joined the OU faculty this year. Returning to the art department was John V. Blackwell. Other new faculty members were C. Harrold Bush, speech; Neva Currie, biology; Virginia Frank, English; Albeno Garbin, sociology; Albert Larson, geography; Donald Orban, speech; D. T. Pedrini, psychology; Rosalie Saltzman, English; Donald Shult, physics; Raymond Smith, history; Sebastian Spagnuolo, foreign languages; Elroy Steele, economics; William LaMar, engineering; James Borsheim, physical education; Robert Ackerman, elementary education; Joe Hanna, secondary education; Wayne Higley, accounting; Sherman McCord, marketing; Willis Rokes, insurance and Major Emilio Ratti, AF ROTC.

Those who did not return to the University faculty were Russell Derbyshire, zoology, retired; Roger Dunbier, geography, on leave of absence; Carl Keeler, biology; James Fargher, psychology; Jerry Rojo, speech; Gordon Schilz, geography, on leave of absence; Paul Therkildsen, economics; Roger Twedt, art; William Alcorn, education; Mara Davis, women's physical education; Russell Gorman, men's athletics, on leave of absence; Robert Mackie, athletics; Clarence Means, men's physical education; Kathryn Schaake, women's physical education; Anson D. Marston, engineering, on leave of absence; James Chastain, insurance; Robert Little, business administration; Major L. Hendrickson and Captain A. H. Swanson, AF ROTC.

The

are responsible for the broad policies under which the University is operated. Upon the recommendation of the faculty, deans and president, the Board also grants degrees. Thus, academic and business matters are wedded to permit the University to carry out its basic function — that of education at its best for the people of Omaha. Officers for the year were: F. E. Borchers, president; Ralph Kiplinger, vice-president; and Mrs. John Merriam, secretary.

The President

Certainly the most awesome job at the University is that of the presidency. Under President Milo Bail's leadership Omaha University has shown significant growth and development in enrollment. President Bail supervises administrative policy, interprets rules and, in general, keeps the University running smoothly.

SEPTEMBER

During the first few weeks of school many students were elected to represent their class in many offices and positions.

Virginia Bohaty and Chuck Saxton were elected as "Typical Freshmen" by their classmates. Virginia and Chuck reigned over the annual freshman mixer. The Typical Freshman election and the freshmen mixer are sponsored by the Student Council.

Elected to serve on Student Council were Freshmen Shari Zagor, Sue Collins, Mike Moore, Chuck Saxton and junior Beth Nelson.

Class officers were elected for the freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior classes.

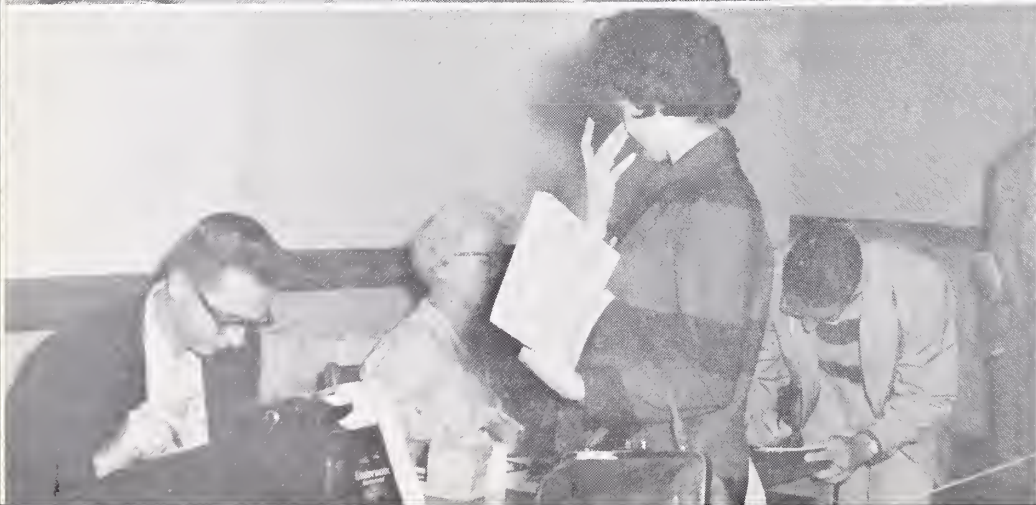

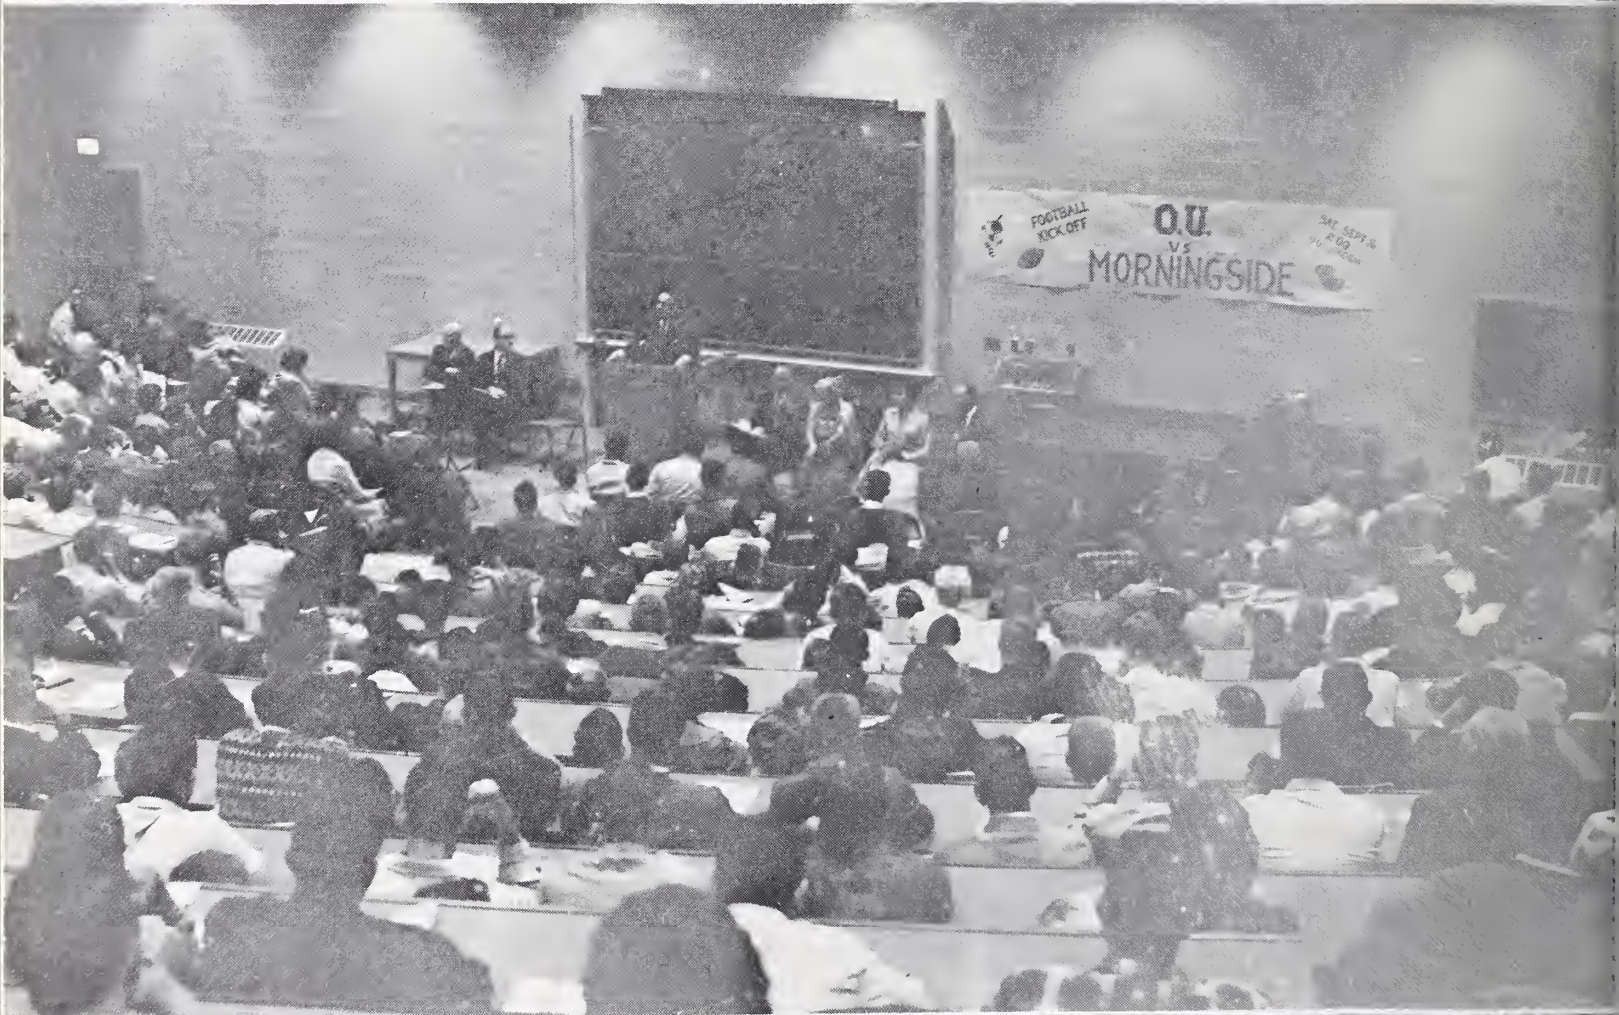

Serving as president of the freshman class was Ed Stanek. Ken McEwen was elected vice-president and Margie Scott, secretary.

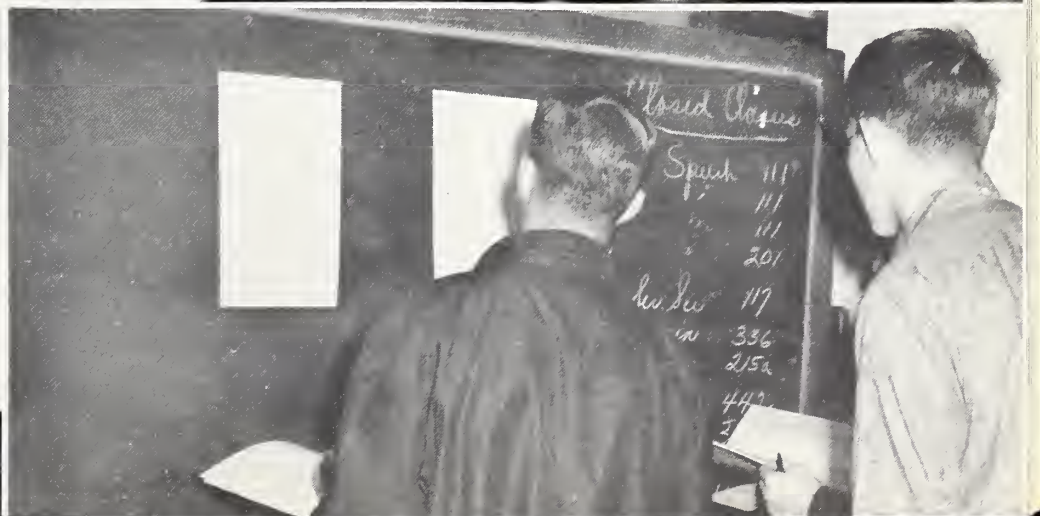

President of the sophomore class was Lynn McCallum. Vice-president was Jim Pelowski. Kathy Planteen was elected secretary.

Denny Graves, Ken Edwards and Midge Butters were elected as president, vice-president and secretary of the junior class.

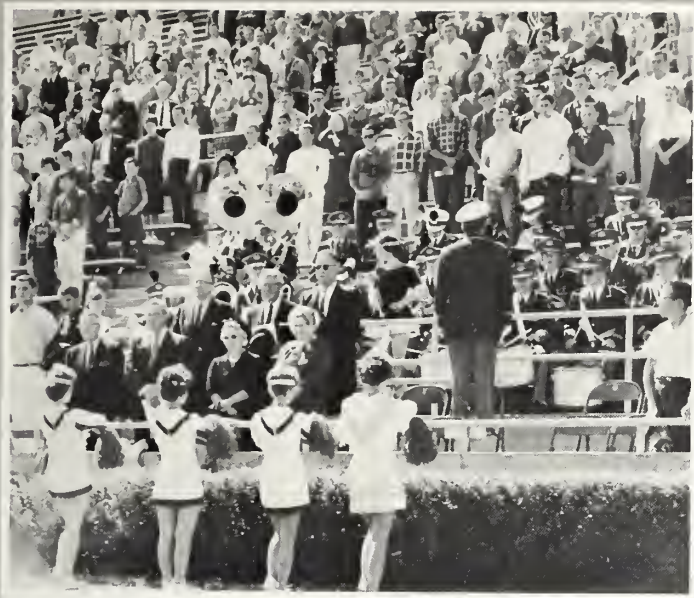

Seniors elected Kendall Brink, president; D. Kent McCallum, vice-president and Ann Pence, secretary.

Upon my election to the student council, I realize that I have accepted obligations to, and responsibilities toward, the University of Omaha. I solemnly promise to act as a representative of the student body and to serve to benefit it at all times. I solemnly swear to conduct myself in a manner that will always be a credit to the student body and to the University. Furthermore, I promise to work for the University and seek to advance her name and reputation in whatever way I am able. By the signing of this oath, I willingly become a member of the Student Council of the University of Omaha.

Typical Frosh

Omaha U football players ended the season with a 6-3 record, the best since 1956 when the mark was 6-2-1. In Central Inter-collegiate Conference play the Indians came through with a 4-1 season. Coach for the season was Al Caniglia. Promoting campus spirit were the cheerleaders, the band, and the Indiannes. Cheerleaders for the season were Mabel Simpson, Jackie Nybbelin, Sandra Modes, Gail Browning, Sue Weidenhammer, Karolee Wybenga, Carol Morgan, Mary Ellen Cundry and Georgia Clark.

OCTOBER

Football

An expedition into the ranks of the larger small colleges ended the University of Omaha football season on a sad note, Drake winning by 36-13. But all in all, it was a happy season for Coach Al Cagniglia's Indians.

The squad ended with a 6-3 record, the best at Omaha U. since 1956 when the mark was 6-2-1. And the tribe finished out of the cellar for the first time in three seasons of Central Intercollegiate Conference play. Only Pittsburg State's 5-0 record topped Omaha's 4-1 CIC Mark.

Highlighting the season was the solid blocking of the offensive line, the stubbornness of the defensive line and the sensational performances of the backfield and end Paul Blazeovich.

The stellar blocking of tackles George Jesko and Neil Galloway, guards Duane Salak and Gary Baughman and center Arch Ferguson enabled the Indians to average 4.8 yards a carry and gave Carl Meyers time to complete 49 of 97 passes.

The defensive wall—usually Glen Hepburn and Jack Kiscoan at ends, Jack Petersen and Bob Florian at tackles and Paul Limas at middle guard—permitted only 1255 yards on the ground for an average of 3.3 a carry. Only Pittsburg State, the nation's No. 1 small college team, could solve the barrier. The Gorillas rushed for 278 yards in the CIC title game and won 34-18.

Rocket Roger Sayers, stymied by Drake and Pitt in the last two games, ended his great season with a rushing average of 9.7 yards a carry. The rocket also scored 10 touchdowns as he terrorized opponents with his long gainers.

Louie Miloni, the other halfback, wound up with 5.7 yards a try and scored 42 points. He was the workhouse of the backfield, carrying 103 times.

Together Sayers and Miloni gained 1299 yards or about two-thirds of the total team rushing total. Fullback Wayne Backes added 304 yards as he posted a fine 4.8 average.

Meyers' dead-eye arm had a favorite target in Blazeovich. Paul nabbed 30 passes for 446 yards to run away with the CIC receiving title. Blazeovich was also an outstanding punter, booming 33 kicks for a 34.2 average.

But most impressive to Omaha U. students and fans was the emergence of the Indians as a football power after only three victories in the previous four years. The team was placed as high as 14th in the NAIA ratings this season.

Another accurate pass from quarterback Carl Meyers finds its way into the waiting hands of end Paul Blazeovich. Meyers receives advice from backfield coach Ken Fischer.

NOVEMBER

The first production in the newly remodeled University auditorium was the comedy "Life With Father."

Leading roles were played by Al Metcalfe, Ginny Dyas and Jim Pelowski.

The play was produced under the direction of Dr. Edwin Clark.

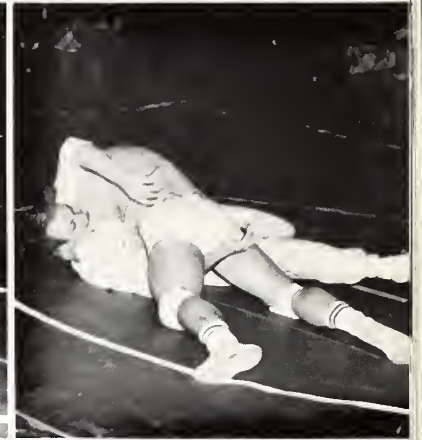

Intramural participation this fall was one of the largest ever according to intramural director Bert Kurth. Anyone is eligible to participate in the program and a wide variety of activities are available. For the men there is touch football, volleyball, basketball, softball, and track. Women's sports include the same with the exception of touch football. Trophies are awarded to the teams placing in the individual and team sports.

Omaha University was again host to the sixth annual National NAIA run. Ernie Gorr, Omaha U. coach and meet director, reported that 23 schools entered 145 runners and 16 teams in the event. Gorr said this year's NAIA field was the largest in the history of the meet. Gene Somer (Above) was the only Omaha U. entry in the event, while Jim Keefe (left) of Central Connecticut State was the winner.

Joe Neuberger lays up two points.

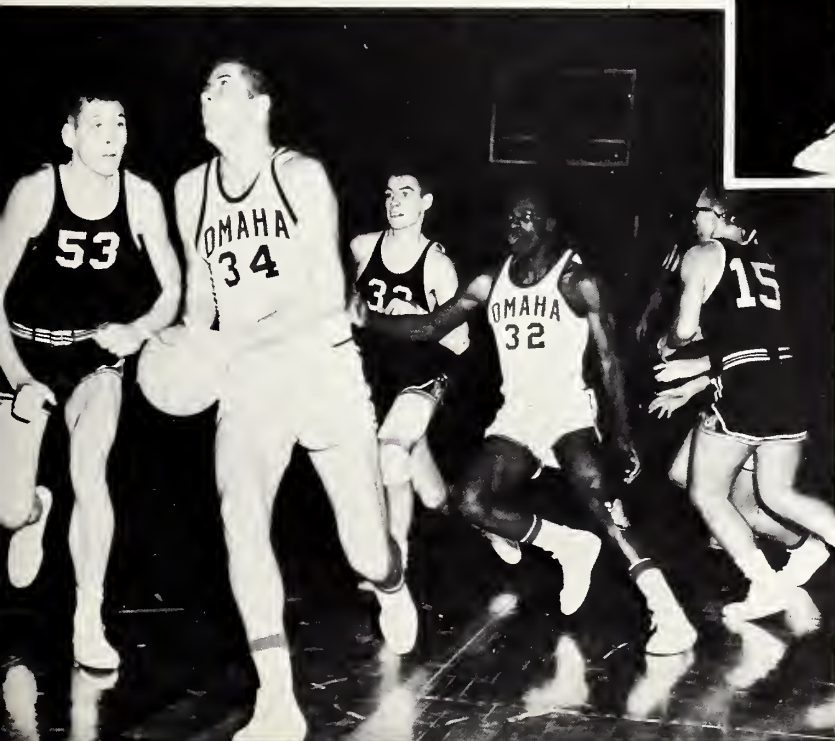

Although the season record of 5-18 may not indicate such, Coach Jim Borsheim may have something to look forward to the 62-63 season. The reasons for optimism center around Paul Kaster who became eligible second semester. Kaster pumped in 155 points in the seven second semester games for a 22.1 average. He also topped the Indian free throw shooters with 25 of 32 for .800. Another stalwart Larry Villnow 6-7 freshman for Benson topped the field goal percentage with 88 of 198 field goals for 44% and grabbed 207 rebounds.

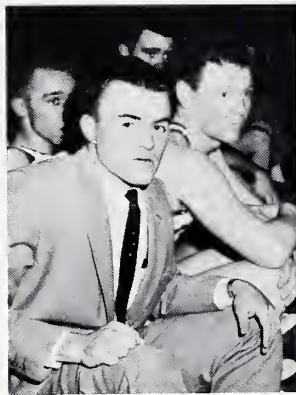

If Bruce Hunter, Joe Neuberger, Ken Conner, Dave Hagglund and Bernie Miller keep improving, the tables may be turned next season.

EVER

STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE . . .

That's the goal of education. This year's graduates have achieved those standards — but they know that it's only the beginning of their search, for the pursuit of excellence is a lifetime job. It's the same with us. Our dedicated field representatives, through years of training and experience, continually look for ways to offer still better service to our policyowners. We think this is a major reason for our continued sound growth. With our goals for better service growing ever higher, we look forward to a dynamic future. It's a future that includes new policies designed to meet new public needs — each of them representing our dedication to the search for "Ever Higher Standards of Excellence."

Looking forward to the BIG DAY are Donna Schiro and Midge Butters.

To those contemplating presenting the gift of a lifetime to someone who will enrich their lives for a lifetime, two items should be of paramount importance . . . the quality of the gift and the integrity of the dealer from whom it is purchased.

The proud title, "registered jeweler" is your assurance of the highest quality and unquestioned integrity. Our firm has earned that proud title by conforming to these two supremely important qualifications. Your assurance of excellence is complete.
